

Karul (everything)

Memorial of the war and those who went into battle and their sacrifices for our future to be here today .

Courage and leadership into the future .

The Dots represent the sky and spirit and the cross hatch represents the land and foundations.

Ladybeetle represents kindness, love, to give and share, a symbol of St Mary and her blessings for everything and everyone.

Leaves represent the tree, being grounded and deeply connected but also represents new growth of new life and opportunities.

Children within St Joseph's and the parents, community and staff leading them to grow and be nurtured in their learning, with the love, faith and courage.

St Joseph's cross of Christianity

Country that was built on clay; Beenleigh.

The sisters who founded and built St Joseph's Tobruk Memorial School.

The footprints represent the sisters returning to spirit. Commemorates their journey in the past and the foundations left behind.

Foundations built on love, faith and unity

Celebrating Families and being inclusive in diversity.

Flames of courage, resilience and hope.

The sisters coming together to build the foundations and continuing their journey afterwards

Honoring our Community and their importance in St Joseph's and being connected.

Blank space represents endless possibilities into the future.

The Parents and children that are apart of everything St Joseph's.

The purple lines and orange dots represent the growth and extension of St Joseph's beliefs through compassion, honour and leadership.

Karul tells the story of St Joseph's Tobruk Memorial School, it speaks on the very foundations built upon Beenleigh, the country made of clay on Gugingin Country. Karul is the story of everything and the importance of the whole in being inclusive. It tells the story of Saint Mary Mackillop and everything she believed; in Christian faith. It speaks of family, community, parents, children, teachers and staff, honouring everyone as whole that makes St Joseph's what it is today. It also speaks on the history of the war memorial and the focus for our children's future built upon the foundation of love, faith, courage, resilience and hope and this is Karul.

